

Medium Enterprise Computer Services Company

Introduction

This case study of a medium enterprise computer services company is based on a September 2016 survey of Frost & Sullivan Executive MindXchange customers by TechValidate, a 3rd-party research service. The profiled company asked to have their name blinded to protect their confidentiality.

"We met people who believe 'iron sharpens iron' and almost immediately developed genuine rapport by exchanging ideas in business, technology and life. Thoroughly enjoyed the event and eager to build on traction found as we move forward with Frost and a specific and reciprocally relevant group of people we were fortunate to have met. "

Challenges

- The business challenges that led the profiled company to evaluate and ultimately select Frost & Sullivan Growth, Innovation and Leadership:
- Finds traditional trade shows and conferences are plagued by the following sponsor challenges:
 - Transient audiences that drive few relationships
 - Content and presentations that are inconsistent and a one-way push from the podium
 - Limited networking and dull activities, resulting in lack of touch points with participants
 - Poor communication & customer service by organizers
 - A lack of true decision makers in attendance
 - PR opportunities rather than demand generation drivers
 - A lack of ROI
- Agreed that the root causes of the demand generation activities that failed to deliver a return in the last 24 months were:
 - Due to the fact that the right messages were delivered to the wrong audience
 - Due to false promises by the vendor
