

The Humane League

Introduction

This case study of The Humane League is based on an August 2021 survey of Emburse Abacus customers by TechValidate, a 3rd-party research service.

“We are saving so much time and have freed up our finance time to be able to focus on other things. We really like the approval workflow and being able to implement certain controls.”

“The reimbursement process is also very quick and efficient. The Abacus platform is very user-friendly to both admin and employees.”

- Lauren Orgeron, Senior Director of Finance

Challenges

Emburse Abacus has helped the Humane League tackle several business challenges including:

- The need for increased visibility into employee spend or company cashflow
- Too much time spent and not enough resources for auditing expense reports or policy compliance controls
- Too many errors or insufficient resources due to manual data entry processes
- High operational costs (time & money) associated with the manual requisition, and invoice process

Use Case

Emburse Abacus's automated expense management solution has provided The Humane League with seamless integrations to its existing accounting and bill-pay software, streamlining the expense and reimbursement process and providing customizable auto-approver rules that help enforce policy compliance and reduce the risk of errors.

Results

The Humane League has achieved the following results with Emburse Abacus:

- Improved policy compliance
- Reimburse expenses faster
- An easy to use and learn platform
- More time and reduced errors through automation of manual tasks
- Improved oversight and visibility into cash flow and employee spend

Since implementing Abacus, the average time to process an invoice (from receipt submission to payment) has been reduced by 1-5 days.

Since implementing Emburse Abacus, The Humane League has seen improvements in the following areas:

- Better predicting employee spend and enforce spend policy
- Decreasing manual work and freeing up time for the finance team to focus on more strategic work
- Providing more spend insights to improve cash flow controls

About Emburse Abacus

Abacus is the only expense management platform to remove the arbitrary employee-generated expense report from the process – making submitting and reviewing expenses faster and more accurate. Expenses are submitted and entered into the system in real time, providing admins instant visibility into spend.
