How our organization uses BlueJeans by Verizon:

We have appreciated the roll-out of so many BlueJeans features over the past 15 months, and we turn to BlueJeans as our go-to web-conferencing platform when meeting privacy is essential.

Would you recommend BlueJeans by Verizon?

Having previously used other web-conference applications, we have appreciated BlueJeans' rich feature set and their product map for future features. Since we often have meeting participants from four different continents, we particularly appreciate the worldwide reliability and security. Keep up the good work!
