

Attend and Make Invaluable Connections at C3

Allissa Chesser, a Customer Support Manager at Bank of the Ozarks, would be very likely to recommend Calabrio Customer Connect 2017 for this reason:

“ Not only was I able to collect more information about the Calabrio ONE suite and all of the benefits that are available through these products, but I was able to make connections with other professionals in our field. These connections are invaluable to me and I would definitely recommend this as an experience to others working in the contact center or WFM environment.
