

“ Our network did not have proper network access control in the past. Users could bring any device and connect to the network. Identity Services Engine gave us control by using EAP-TLS. This feature fully ensures who owns the device and who is the user. We also are able to allow guest and employees on personal devices knowing which devices they are using.

— Adil Pasha, VP of Network Architect, Synchrony Financial Bank

---

Source: Adil Pasha, VP of Network Architect, Synchrony Financial Bank

TechValidate
by SurveyMonkey

✓ Validated

Published: May. 8, 2017 TVID: DBD-5FF-25B