" Stealthwatch is really useful by allowing us to follow the traffic inside the organization and start to understand the way we must design our network. In terms of visibility, it was the first time we had some. At the same time, we could identify where some of the threats were coming from.

— Network Administrator, Federal Government

CISCO | TechValidate by SurveyMonkey