" Umbrella is an important part of our security platform. It helps protect our users from themselves and likely helps with our student productivity as well. The fact it is easy to implement and use makes it even more valuable for a small staff like ours. Too many solutions require more time to manage than we have.

— Jeff Collins, Network Administrator, Indiana Public Schools