Iowa Educational Institution Uses CPI to Prevent Legal Issues

Introduction

This case study of an educational institution is based on a September 2015 survey of Crisis Prevention Institute customers by TechValidate, a 3rd-party research service. The profiled organization asked to have their name blinded to protect their confidentiality.

"CPI has improved staff de-escalation skills, overall safety, and has become ingrained in our training."

"Using CPI training has led to improved student outcomes because of an increase in direct instruction time (For instance, test scores, student grades, graduation rates, etc.)."

"From year 2013–2014, in-school and out-of-school suspensions were reduced by 60%. CPI-trained Behavior Interventionists have been hired in each building that meets with grade level teams weekly."

"Refresher classes that cover a variety of topics have been helpful in meeting the needs of all buildings. Bus drivers training was a big hit and they have requested more frequent meetings to simply discuss the issues they face."

"CPI has made a difference for us in terms of a more positive climate for students and staff. We have greater confidence in dealing with difficult students and parents. Our district is recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Iowa."
