

The Value of Training

CPI has made a difference in the lives of our staff and students in that there is an increased level of safety perceived by both. Staff feel better equipped in the de-escalation process, which decreases office referrals, explosive student behaviors, suspensions, and the need for restraint/seclusion. It has been a blessing to see the use of handcuffing students by security guards virtually eliminated!

— Michelle DeJaeger, Administrator, Education Achievement Authority

Source: Michelle DeJaeger, Administrator, Education Achievement Authority

TechValidate
by SurveyMonkey

✓ Validated

Published: Jul. 20, 2016 TVID: 401-80D-D7C