

CPI NCI has effectively shifted mindsets district and SELPA-wide around how to support individuals throughout the escalation cycle. The need for physical safety interventions has significantly dropped and staff feel prepared and confident in their ability to work with individuals who may be exhibiting signs of anxiety/defensiveness or are engaging in risk behavior. We love that CPI NCI is generalizable and applicable to a variety of contexts, not specific to special education.

— Mallory Thau, Special Education Program Supervisor, San Dieguito Union High School District

Source: Mallory Thau, Special Education Program Supervisor, San Dieguito Union High School District

TechValidate
by SurveyMonkey

✓ Validated

Published: May. 25, 2021 TVID: 5E3-537-F2F