

With staff, it has made a big difference. Students are not aware that staff are using the training, since it has become part of practice. The students that are physically disruptive, in general, their physical outbursts decrease when the practice is implemented consistently.

— Kathy Morrison, Social Worker, Sumter School District

Source: Kathy Morrison, Social Worker, Sumter School District

TechValidate
by SurveyMonkey

✓ Validated

Published: Jan. 5, 2023 TVID: CC5-049-034