

“ The facility I work in is a residential program for conduct disordered male youth ages 13 through 17. The facility has utilized CPI since 1989, so it would be very difficult to determine outcomes to earlier questions. what I can say is the new techniques (sitting and standing) have made a big difference as well as the ability to utilize more than two staff during physical interventions.

— Ernie Cross, Chief Operations Officer, Elkins Mountain School

Source: Ernie Cross, Chief Operations Officer, Elkins Mountain School

Published: Jan. 5, 2023 TVID: D1B-474-B37

TechValidate
by SurveyMonkey