

CPI Training Helps Reduce Physical Restraint in Human Services

The Center for Human Services decreased the use of physical restraint and seclusion by 50—74% since implementing CPI training.

Source: Chanisty Lambert, Training Coordinator, Center for Human Services

TechValidate
by SurveyMonkey

✓ Validated

Published: Aug. 3, 2016 TVID: F3C-5A3-630