Which of the following statements do you agree with when making digital transformation decisions?

ROI and overall value to the business are always top of mind. — 67%

Removing manual processes and replacing with more automated workflows is critical to digital transformation. — 62%
Aligning people, process, and technology is critical to making our organization more efficient and effective. — 52%

An essential pillar of digital transformation efforts is driving innovation to meet the evolving needs of the business. — 43%

A cornerstone of digital transformation is the ability to substantially improve security for your technology services, team members, and clients globally, 24/7/365. — 33%

When evaluating changes to your current solutions and providers, it must solve for minimal impact to the business and require the least disruption as possible. — 24%

Before you pull the trigger on a major digital transformation initiative, you need to transform your security first. — 10%

CROWDSTRIKE   TechValidate by SurveyMonkey

✔ Validated   Published: Feb. 10, 2021   TVID: BAA-776-A22