

Gigamon Ticks All the Boxes for US Bank

4/5 Stars

Please describe the CapEx or OpEx ROI your organization has achieved using the Gigamon Visibility and Analytics Fabric.

We have visibility into things we didn't realize were happening in our architectures thanks to Gigamon, and we can now account for them in our budgeting. We also have a better understanding of our application pathways. Plus, our OpEx savings will continue to make our lives easier than they would have been otherwise.

What are the most significant benefits your organization has achieved using Gigamon solutions?

Gigamon gives us enhanced visibility and simplification, and we understand our workloads better.
