How our organization uses Sierra:

“ We are a special library housed inside an art museum. I love that I am able to set up a self-checkout station for my curatorial team who are in and out of this space at all odd hours of the day! We are also able to continue to grow our partnership with the University of Arkansas via our shared catalogs on Sierra.

Please describe your experience with Innovative products and services.

“ It really is an “Innovative” company.
