" We have a book bike that travels through our community during local events providing library card sign up and check outs. We also own two community bookmobiles that travel our service area with LEAP integration. During the initial Pokemon Go frenzy we used external LEAP access for new library card users during our weekly events.

— Derek Brown, Director of Information Technology, ROCHESTER HILLS PUBLIC LIBRARY