

Excellent Training & Support from LabWare®

A LIMS Manager at a small business energy & utilities company would be very likely to recommend LabWare® for this reason:

“ The flexibility of product (LabWare® LIMS) – I’ve described it to various people as a “Toolbox LIMS” in that it can do just about anything you want. Training and support from LabWare® are excellent and the CEC (Customer Education Conference) is a must for all LIMS administrators (even if you only get to attend one).
