

Save Time & Effort with LexisNexis Public Records

I was trying to locate contact information for an opposing party in a case. I usually check just before sending the document out for service. I checked the week prior to and the week of sending the document out and found from one week to the next that the person had died. This information was helpful in how we proceeded in the case and prevented us from wasting time and effort trying to serve someone who had died in the interim.
