

Being responsible for 50 state legislatures, identifying, tracking and monitoring legislation through the session make for more efficient work flow and provide an overview of legislative and regulatory efforts in the states. The summaries available in State Net permit me time to focus on drilling down on more important issues that have immediate impacts, especially early in the legislative sessions (January to June).

— Government Affairs, Transportation Services Company

---

Source: Government Affairs, Transportation Services Company

Published: Mar. 21, 2017 TVID: 434-5B4-751

