

“ We used to hand make jigs and templates that were used to clamp blanks to and follow patterns with a ball bearing cutter. One slip and the pattern needed repaired or remade. With CNC and ALPHACAM we draw it, create a spoil board and run anywhere from a few to thousands of parts.

— Joe Lemble, CAD Programmer, RJ Display

---

Source: Joe Lemble, CAD Programmer, RJ Display

Published: Oct. 14, 2021 TVID: E39-9D2-C15

TechValidate
by SurveyMonkey