

Why Niagara Conservation recommends OpenSesame

5/5 Stars

How our organization uses OpenSesame:

“ We use OpenSesame for our compliance training and our competency training.

Would you recommend OpenSesame?

“ Yes, OpenSesame offers thousands of courses in a wide variety of topics all in one central location. Additionally, there are several formats of learning. For example, looking at sexual harassment training, I have several options and formats to choose from. This is true for many courses so you are always bound to find a course and format that works for you and your company.
