

“ In the event of a malfunction of a switch or router that has to be replaced, the backup configuration of that device can be easily copied and pasted in the replacement switch/router. The maps where the configurations are stored on are shared on the network so that its available for the support group.

— Jelle Penninga, Network Administrator, Koninklijke

Source: Jelle Penninga, Network Administrator, Koninklijke

Published: Oct. 17, 2016 TVID: 13E-4A9-14A

TechValidate
by SurveyMonkey