Accurate Alerting with Baseline Thresholds in SolarWinds Server & Application Monitor

" SolarWinds Server & Application Monitor allows you to set global or specific thresholds on the monitored components depending on its importance. It also has an option to use the latest baseline threshold to allow for more accurate alerting, which I haven't seen from other monitoring tools.

— John Marcial, IT/Systems Administrator, Carlson Wagonlit Travel, Inc.

solarwinds | TechValidate by SurveyMonkey