How our organization uses Stack Overflow for Teams:

Spreading knowledge throughout the company is always a challenge and this will unlock more potential going forward. It will change the way our company finds the right information. It hasn't changed yet but as we roll it out further, I expect to see improvements in all areas.

Would you recommend Stack Overflow for Teams?

Yes, it is a great way to share knowledge and empower teams. The search capability and usability makes it easy to find the relevant information quickly.
