Introduction

“We use The Skills Connection for developing and executing our analyst relations plan.

The team at The Skills Connection are real pros and provided great guidance to help us develop our analyst plan and briefing decks, as well as work with each presenter to have compelling content, examples and talking points for those briefings. For analyst inquiries, they also helped shape our prep questions and content to make sure we got the most from each analyst interaction.

I would recommend The Skills Connection because of their experience, expertise and clear, direct and constructive feedback. I found them to be a great partner to work with throughout the process of developing our analyst relations plan, executing on it, and continuing to hone it as our relationships with analysts evolved.

The Skills Connection was able to bring value to us by providing a clear analyst strategy and plan along with helping us develop compelling analyst briefing decks — both for introductory analyst briefings and for product launch briefings.
