How our organization uses The Skills Connection:

We used The Skills Connection to assist us in the preparation of our responses to the Magic Quadrant.

Would you recommend The Skills Connection?

We would recommend The Skills Connection without hesitation. It was great value for the money. Our score improved over the prior year and we attribute much of that improvement directly to their efforts. They can think like the analysts which is invaluable in terms for assuring that responses hit the mark. and they were very flexible with their time and willing to work around our schedules which we greatly appreciated. We will use them again.
